WHAT DOES THE NEW CODE ON THE RIGHTS OF CHILD HAS TO OFFER?

GEORGIAN YOUNG LAWYERS' ASSOCIATION
GEORGIAN INTERNATIONAL ACADEMY

The Parliament approved with hearing the Code on the Rights of the Child and draft amendments in the accompanying laws.

The new Code aims at formulating state policy and systemic approach to the protection of children's rights. A single legislative act on child rights is established. The new code should be a guide to the work of all state bodies, physical and juridical persons.

DRAFT LAW. INITIATOR

Legislative Initiative: Code on the Rights of the Child and draft amendments in the accompanying laws

Initiator: Sopho Kiladze, Anri Okhanashvili, Karlo Kopaliani, Irakli (Dachi) Beraia, Levan Bezhanishvili, Nona Gurashvili, Vano Zardiashvili, David Matkavishvili, Rati Ionatamishvili, Merab Kvaraia, Irakli Mesurishvili, Giorgi Kakhiani, Tsotne Zurabiani, Akaki Zoidze, Dimitri Mzhavia, Giga Gulordava, Levan Machavariani, Dimitri Khundadze, Makhir Darziev, Mirian Tsiklauri, Mamuka Mdinaradze.

Authors: Sopho Kiladze, Paata Turava - Professor of Ivane Javakhishvili Tbilisi State University

ESSENCE OF THE DRAFT LAW

The legislative amendments are based on the necessity of fulfillment of the obligations undertaken by the United Nations Convention on Human Rights by Georgia and the improvement of legislation.

According to the Code on the Rights of the Child:

- The competencies of different branches of government, as well as central and local government are separated in the field of child rights;
- The supervisory role of the Public Defender is increased in terms of assessing the rights of children;
- National Plan for Data Collection and Analysis and Impact Assessment Mechanism for Child's Rights is created;
- The obligation of the municipalities is defined to determine the development of social activity of the child, social integration of children, supporting volunteers, child care programs, child health support, child support programs;
- A child-friendly justice system is established, which implies free legal assistance, preparing specialized courts for working with a child;
- Additional sanctions are imposed in case of violation of the rules of the child's in public space;
- Religious confessions have the opportunity to engage in the decision-making process of the child's alternative care, as well as in the implementation of family support programs.

1. CONCEPT OF FAMILY

CURRENT VERSION	PROPOSED AMENDMENTS
Different law explain who is considered to be a member of the family for the purposes of a particular act, however the concept of family is not defined.	For the purposes of law the family is defined as the fundamental societal group and the central environment for child's care, support and protection, which the child's parent or parents, guardian, caregiver, custodian, brother and / or other person responsible for the upbringing of the child.

2. DEFINITION OF PROTECTION OF CHILDREN FROM HARMFUL INFLUENCE

CURRENT VERSION	PROPOSED AMENDMENTS
According to the Law of Georgia on Protecting Minors from Harmful Influences, harmful influence implies the influence exerted through the film screening, consumption and sale of print production, alcohol and tobacco, and through the participation in games of chance that may harm a minor's mental and physical health, and his/her moral or social development.	Protection from the negative social environment and the exposure to information containing elements of risk on the basis of the risk assessment of state and municipal programs and measures, as well as the establishment of a relevant legislative framework.

3. CLARIFYING RIGHTS TO THE CHILD IN EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

CURRENT VERSION	PROPOSED AMENDMENTS
Doesn't exist	There is a responsibility for educational institutions to provide information to children about their rights and their protection mechanisms.

4. TAKING THE OPINION OF THE CHILD INTO ACCOUNT

CURRENT VERSION	PROPOSED AMENDMENTS
In some cases, the opinion of the child is taken into account. For example, according to the Civil Code of Georgia, the opinion of a child more than 10 years is taken into account in the decision to change his/her surname. However, the single procedure of taking into account of the child's opinion is not established.	• It is the right of the child to be heard and his/ her opinion taken into account on decisions that significantly impact on his/her future higher rights. • This right cannot be restricted in any form. According to the draft amendments in the Law on Civil Acts: For children up to 10 years of age, the court will be obliged to take his/her opinion into account, accordingly to his/her maturity. If the child is over 10 years of age, then his/her consent is required.

5. THE CHILD'S RIGHT TO PROPERTY

CURRENT VERSION	PROPOSED AMENDMENTS
Doesn't exist.	According to the draft amendments to the Law of Civil Acts, the right of the child to take care of the use, gift and trust of the valued over 500 GEL is permitted by the parent or other legal representatives only in the best interests of the child and consent from the court.

6. CRITERIA FOR THE LEGAL REPRESENTATIVE OF THE CHILD UNDER ALTERNATIVE CARE

CURRENT VERSION	PROPOSED AMENDMENTS
Doesn't exist.	A person appointed as a legal representative of an alternative care should enjoy a high reputation in society, have appropriate working experience and possess the knowledge and skills necessary to work with a child.

7. RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE BROADCASTERS

CURRENT VERSION	PROPOSED AMENDMENTS
The Code of Conduct for Broadcasters recognizes the principles of protection of juveniles and the requirements related to broadcasting. The Code of Conduct defines the age groups as well as appropriate programs for each group. The broadcasting ethics although this represents moral norms and does not provide effective sanctions in case of violations.	According to the amendments proposed to the law on broadcasting, the protection of juveniles from harmful influence will be regulated at the level of law, as well as changes are envisaged by effective mechanisms. • Broadcasters are obliged to ensure the protection of juveniles from harmful influence and control over the protection of the age-rules of programs spread through broadcasting means; • It is prohibited to broadcast a program or broadcast material in the program that may harm the physical, psychological, intellectual and spiritual development of minors.

8. THE INTERNET SPHERE IS REGULATED

CURRENT VERSION	PROPOSED AMENDMENTS
Doesn't exist.	• The Internet provider is obliged to elaborate such mechanisms that allow the user to block access to threatening information for a child; • The placement of threatening information on the Internet for children will also be regulated.

9. THE EFFECT OF LEGISLATIVE INITIATIVES ON THE RIGHTS OF THE CHILD

CURRENT VERSION	PROPOSED AMENDMENTS
The current Law on Normative Acts does not envisage such a stipulation.	According to the amendments to the Law on Normative Acts: • The Government shall be obliged to reflect the draft law's impact on the child's rights status in conjunction with other data in the explanatory note of the bill; • The same commitment will be imposed on municipal bodies in the case of drafting a normative act.

10. THE AUTHORITY OF THE PUBLIC DEFENDER IS INCREASED

CURRENT VERSION	PROPOSED AMENDMENTS
The Public Defender's mandate of protection of human rights includes the protection of the rights of the child, however the current acts on Public Defender doesn't explicitly define authority of the Public Defender over the rights of the child, except for the checking of child rights in children's home.	• The Public Defender should have the right to: • Request information from the persons implementing the child protection and support activities; • Identify cases of violation of child rights, to analyze and monitor; • Discuss statements and complaints about alleged violations of child rights; In addition, the hot line will be activated to respond to child abuse cases.

11. RIGHT TO RECEIVE FREE LEGAL AID

CURRENT VERSION	PROPOSED AMENDMENTS
The Legal Aid Service does not have obligation to provide all juveniles in all categories of cases with full legal assistance.	The Legal Aid Service will be obliged to provide any juvenile with legal aid related to child's rights regardless of their status and case.

12. REQUEST FOR COMPENSATION OF DAMAGES IN CASE OF CHILD ABUSE

CURRENT VERSION	PROPOSED AMENDMENTS
The statute of limitations in the Civil Code is common to all persons and does not provide for the peculiarities of the juveniles. In addition, the child victim has the right to demand compensation for damages only from the offender.	The statute of limitations of the right to appeal to the court upon compensation for damages in case of sexual, economic, domestic violence and other forms of violence against the child shall be counted from the achievement of adulthood. • According to the Code of Child Rights, a child victim may have the opportunity to claim compensation from the state when it is impossible to get such compensation in fast a manner from the offender; • Short and long term programs for child rehabilitation are being created.

13. PERMANENT PARLIAMENTARY COUNCIL ON THE PROTECTION OF THE RIGHTS OF THE CHILD

CURRENT VERSION	PROPOSED AMENDMENTS
Doesn't exist.	The Permanent Parliamentary Council for the Protection of Child Rights is established in the Parliament for the purpose of ensuring systematic and coordinated work in the process of determining the state policy of child rights, legislative development, budgeting and parliamentary control.

14. RESPONSE MECHANISMS TO ACTS OF VIOLENCE AGAINST CHILDREN IN EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

CURRENT VERSION	PROPOSED AMENDMENTS
The current law does not envisage a hot line.	• Early and pre-school, general and vocational education institutions will act as a hotline for child abuse; • The educational institution defines the person responsible for child abuse issues, coordinator.

15. RULES OF HEARING OF CASES CONNECTED TO CHILDREN

CURRENT VERSION	PROPOSED AMENDMENTS
The law does not recognize the priority hearing of cases connected to cases. Moreover, the specialization on cases related to children are not recognized in all spheres of the judicial.	Discussion of child affairs is prioritized in the administrative bodies and courts, as in the administrative bodies and courts, as in the administrative bodies and courts, as